Dear Miss Parlow:

I am attaching hereto copy of a letter received today from our sponsor Mr. William S. Gibson. It is seldom indeed that he writes in this vein, and I thought that you would be pleased to have a copy.

Yours very sincerely,

Miss Persis A. Hebden,
Promotion Manager,
Royal Conservatory of Music of Toronto,
135 College St.,
Toronto, Ontario.

Dear Miss Hebden:

Yesterday was the first Royal Conservatory of Music broadcast that I have heard for four weeks and I, therefore, had a fresh mind and ~~eye~~ when I was listening to Miss Parlow yesterday.

I thought that yesterday's programme had everything that any interested person could wish for. I, as sponsor, was greatly gratified at what I heard.

Every student, teacher and lover of stringed instruments must have been pleased at the programme put on by this eminent artist. I am sure that the general public would also be pleased because of your programme notes and because throughout the programme, there was a display of virtuosity and deep feeling that could only command respect.

It is only occasionally I write like this, and I hope that you and Miss Parlow will accept this letter from one who is pleased and grateful.

Yours sincerely,

WSG/B

President.

Dear Miss Hadden:

Yesterday was the 13th day of the 14th that I have been for 14 weeks and 1, therefore, and I have when I was 14 years old, I was 14 years old.

I thought that yesterday's program had everything that represented person could wish for. I, as speaker, was really at what I heard.

With a child, I heard and I was of different and have been since at the program but on 14th day of
I am sure that the 14th day will be the best of program was and because I was 14 years old, I was a of, I thought and I was 14 years old, I was 14 years old.

It is only yesterday I wrote the letter and I hope that you and Miss Hadden will accept this letter from me and I hope and
